CONDUCTORS

Dr Karen Grylls

CHOIR GUEST CONDUCTOR

Dr Karen Grylls is Associate Professor in Conducting and Head of Choral Studies at the University of Auckland and is Artistic Director of the Choirs Aotearoa New Zealand Trust, the managing body for the NZ Youth Choir and Voices NZ. She founded Voices New Zealand Chamber Choir in 1998 and the choir has achieved great acclaim internationally in performance and recording. Dr Grylls was Conductor and Artistic Director of the New Zealand Youth Choir from 1989 to 2011, and Artistic Director of Toronto's Exultate Chamber Choir from 2011 to 2013.

In 1996 the University of Auckland honoured her with a Distinguished Teaching Award in Music and in 1999 she became an Officer of the New Zealand Order of Merit (ONZM) for her services to choral music. Her disc Spirit of the Land (2006) won Best Classical Music Album at the New Zealand Music Awards in 2006 and her latest disc, Voice of the Soul, is a finalist for the 2014 awards.

Karen began her academic career in New Zealand before moving to the University of Washington, Seattle, where she undertook post-graduate study in conducting and music theory. Her doctorate, "The Aggregate Re-Ordered: A Paradigm for Stravinsky's Requiem Canticles," examines serial structure in late Stravinsky.

Dr Grylls is much in demand as an adjudicator for competitions worldwide, including the Marktoberdorf International Chamber Choir Competition, Bavaria, and The World Choir Games in Xiamen, China. She is sought internationally as a choral clinician and regularly conducts master classes and workshops in Wales, England, North America and Canada.

"After 30 years in the profession, I remain totally passionate about the voice and about the power of singing in people's lives and on the concert platform."

Emma Carey

CONCERT BAND CONDUCTOR

Emma Carey has been the Director of Woodwind Studies at Brisbane Boys' College since 2001, teaching saxophone and clarinet as well as co-ordinating the Junior Instrumental Program. She conducts the BBC Symphonic Band, Concert Band and Junior Band. Emma has recently completed a Master of Music degree under the guidance of Dr Ralph Hultgren at the Queensland Conservatorium of Music, Griffith University specialising in Instrumental Pedagogy and Motivation. She has participated in numerous conducting and teaching workshops with renowned educators such as Bruce Pearson, Tim Reynish, Matthew George, John Baker, Andrew Mathers, Mark Fonder, Craig Kirchoff and John Lynch. Emma conducts the Young Conservatorium Symphonic Wind Ensemble and has also been involved in the State Honours Ensemble program. She is passionate about developing excellent ensemble programs and, in particular, working to engage younger students in music making.

Stephen Chin

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA CONDUCTOR

Stephen's early studies at Sydney University violin and composition were completed under John Harding and Peter Sculthorpe respectively. He has been invited to perform with such groups as The ABC Sinfonia, The Badinerie Players, The Queensland Philharmonic Orchestra, The Queensland Symphony Orchestra, The Queensland Pops Orchestra and Corda Spiritus. Stephen publishes a number of string compositions and arrangements which have been used as test pieces for a number of competitions throughout Australia and are published as examination pieces for the Australian Music Examination Board (AMEB). Stephen is presently Principal String Teacher and Director of Orchestras at Brisbane Grammar School, the National President of the Australian String Teachers' Association (AUSTA) and was inaugural conductor of the BEL Orchestra at the University of Queensland. He is also a lecturer in String Pedagogy at the Queensland Conservatorium of Music, Griffith University.

Bachelor of Music (Sydney University), Post Graduate Diploma in Musical Composition (Sydney University), Master of Music (Queensland Conservatorium of Music Griffith University)
